Over the rainbow

Today we said goodbye to Rosie. She had a stroke this morning which affected her ability to walk straight and it upset her (and us).

We took the difficult decision to ask Billa to come out and put her to sleep. Rosie went over the rainbow peacefully lying in our arms in Catt's Cottage. She lived as long at Rosemoor as Jacqui lived at her own childhood home, just shy of 18 years.

We shall miss her terribly but will think back with a smile for all the lovely memories she left us with.
